

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS OF LYCOMING COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA

IN RE

SCHEDULING IN FRONT OF MASTERS

NO. MD 6 - 2009

DATE: January 30, 2008

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER

WILLIAM J. BOND
PROthonary
JAN 30 2008
11:38 AM
LYCOMING COUNTY

The judge who is designated to sign and schedule family law matters shall have the authority to assign any family law matter to a master as permitted by applicable law or rule of court. In referring a matter to a master, consideration shall be given to expediency, complexity, and other relevant considerations.

Any party may file exceptions to a master's report and/or recommendations as permitted by Pa.R.Civ.P. 1920.55-2 and Lycoming County local rule 1920.55.

As a matter of practice, contempt petitions where incarceration is a likely consequence, petitions for bifurcation, and petitions for advanced distribution will not be referred to masters.

BY THE COURT,

Kenneth D. Brown, President Judge

cc: Judges